

PRESS RELEASE

2009 NATIONAL BAREFOOT WATERSKI CHAMPIONSHIPS TO BE HELD IN ONTARIO AUGUST 21, 22 & 23rd

Water Ski Wakeboard Ontario
Toronto, Ontario
July 27, 2009

This year the Canadian National Barefoot Waterski Championships have been awarded to take place in the province of Ontario, just west of Newmarket at Summerski Water Ski Club. Summerski is located on Keele Street, 2 km north of Hwy 9. The event will commence at 7:00AM and finish at approximately 6:00PM each day of the championships (Friday, Saturday & Sunday).

Water Ski Wakeboard Ontario (WSWO), will host the National Barefoot Waterski Championships. WSWO is a volunteer based, not for profit organization affiliated with Water Ski & Wakeboard Canada and is recognized by the Ministry of Tourism & Recreation as the governing body for all towed water sports in Ontario.

Athletes from all over Canada will be competing, including former Canadian National Girls Champions Melissa Spence from Aurora, Canadian National Junior World Team members Becky Moynes from Belleville, George Weekes from Toronto, Brem Allen from Peterborough, and Dani Tipping from Victoria BC. Also current Canadian Open World team members Paul Macdonald from Milton, Gordie Croteau from Sudbury, Don Schwartz from Vancouver B.C. along with Dwayne and Caitlyn Rowland from Calgary. Additionally a variety of other recreational competitors from across Canada will be present.

This national event is sure to be a huge success filled with excitement, thrill, and outstanding talent. We encourage everyone who is interested to stop by and see Canada's best athletes in action. Admission is FREE to the General public. Your support and any coverage with this event would be greatly appreciated. Please consider attending the Barefoot Waterski Championships, along with generating any possible awareness about this National event.
